Take Initiative

Would you like to make your wife feel like a million bucks or a black diamond? Then do your best to meet her sexual needs. 50 to 90 percent of married men view their sexuality as a major element in their worth as a man. Therefore when a husband doesn't see the need to take any initiative in their sex life, a wife may interpret it as a lack on her part. The belief is most women enjoy the chase it never hurts for men to let them know they're available to be chased.

A photograph of a man and a woman in a romantic embrace on a bed. The man is shirtless and wearing black briefs, leaning over the woman. The woman is wearing a black lace bra and is looking up at the man. They are both smiling and appear to be in a intimate moment. The background is a soft, out-of-focus bedroom setting with white bedding and a pinkish wall.

Guys, how often do you initiate sex? Maybe the time has come to start! Your wife will probably be delighted if you take an active interest in the romance of your marriage. Im talking about being romantically assertive, not dominating.

Most wives don't like bossy men. (And most men don't like bossy women.) To avoid being bossy or annoyingly aggressive see yourself as your wife's personal seducer. Instead of barking out "Let's have sex", give her a wink, pour a glass of wine and soft kiss on the neck. Then see how long it take for her to catch up.
